Lake Eola Charter School Online Auction OPEN

The Lake Eola Charter School Online Auction blasted off Wednesday, May 5th. Items include an opportunity to see the Magic at the new Arena in a luxury skybox! We appreciate the City of Orlando and the Mayor's Office for making that available to us-thanks! We would also like to thank our sponsors who stepped up to support the auction. Tom Reilly of Holland and Reilly, CPAs; Ed Langdon, CPA; FinnHenry's; and Impact Day Spa in Maitland. By now, you should have received the link to the auction site, if not be sure to click on www.biddingforgood.com/lecs and tell all you friends and family. Remember, all proceeds go to support the LECS Art program for our children.

Alumni: Looking Back at a LECS Success- Briana Hoffman

Not one to drag her feet, Briana Hoffman was successfully completing high school level courses while still in middle school at Lake Eola Charter School. Brianna went on to the IB program at Cypress Creek and then as a Bright Futures Scholar (100% tuition) at the University of Florida where she finished her BS in Psychology in three years. Briana is now at the Florida Institute of Technology in Melbourne, where she is enrolled in a combination masters/doctorate program in psychology. Congratulations Briana Hoffman!

Offering a helping hand to a Serviceman

You have heard of the Philly Fanatic (you must be a baseball fan to get that reference). For those of you who do not know, Mr. Madewell is the Facebook Fanatic! His constant presence on Facebook has allowed him to reconnect with many LECS alumni and even students before his tenure at LECS. Recently he connected with Staff Sergeant Pedro Barron who wrote about his current tour in Afganistan and the dread of the heat of summer. When asked what he needed, he responded "sunblock and lots of it." As usual LECS students and their families stepped up to the plate. Over $180.00 was collected and matched by a donation from the BMT Foundation which also paid all the postage. Students mailed 50 pounds of sunblock and other tolietries to SSG

Barron. We will be checking Facebook to see when the packages arrive.

Special Shout Outs to Our Supporters

There is never a time when we have asked that they have not responded. That is Publix who takes service to the community to a new level-thank you for making the most recent event, Teacher Appreciation such a delicious success!

Sincerely,

Ronnie DeNoia
